APOSTLE SAYS CONDITIONS IN MEXICO ARE STILL BAD

Apostle Anthony W. Ivins of the Mormon church returned Sunday to his home at Salt Lake City after an absence of several weeks, most of which was spent in Texas and Arizona caring for the Mormon fugitives from Mexico and seeing what can be done towards gaining redress for the loss of property destroyed in the colonies.

"The developments of the past week indicate that some improvement in present conditions can soon be expected," Apostle Ivins says, "but conditions are still about as bad as they can be."

MONTGOMERY WARD DIES AT HIS HOME IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—A. Montgomery Ward, who rose from a day laborer to the presidency of a mail order house which bears his name, died today at his residence at Highland Park, a suburb of this city. The multi-millionaire was 70 years old.

Death resulted from a complication of diseases, which developed after two falls. About two years ago he slipped on the running board of an automobile at Pasadena, Cal., and broke one arm and a shoulder blade. These injuries forced him to forego all outdoor amusements and confined him largely to his home. Six weeks ago Mr. Ward fell in his home and fractured his right hip. The kidneys were injured and pneumonia set in.

I. W. W. ARMY CALLED OUT AGAINST KANSAS CITY

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 4.—After Peter McAvoy and four other leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World had been fined each $100 in municipal court today for blocking traffic while speaking on the streets, McAvoy, who is chief of the local I. "Within a few days," declared McAvoy, "a thousand men will be here from Omaha, Des Moines, Rock Island, St. Louis, Chicago, Denver, Salt Lake City, Peoria and Davenport to raise the banner of the I. W. W. in Kansas City, where capitalism and the police have challenged our right to organize and speak."
